Managing Director and ESCP graduate with a proven track record of driving exponential value, including a 4x acquisition cost valuation at Vinci Airports across 50+ global locations. Expert in business development and digital transformation, I designed and scaled new RPA/BI business models at Tobania and restructured enterprise workflows post-M&A at Holcim via SAP HANA migrations. Melding financial strategy with data analytics (Power BI), I turn complex global operations into high-growth business engines.

Professional Experience
